“ We knew each other since kindergarten at the McKinley School in Cicero Illinois. The summer of 1960 will always be a fond memory of our friendship over these many years. I last spoke to Al on Christmas Day and I wished him my love. He will be remembered as a good fellow and nice guy. Nancy, I am so sorry for this loss of a wonderful man. “ Al was a great friend for over 60 years! Dang good 16" softball player and the kind of fellow it was fun just to hang around with sippin' sodas at Waco Field and Warren Park. A honored member of the Magical Mystery Tour group. We will miss him. Fred & Kim.
