

Bernadine E. Livingston

May 20, 1927 - November 5, 2017

Bernadine E. Livingston, age 90, lived a long and dynamic life. Her actions were rooted in service to others, privately and publicly, and she loved Christ and God's creation fully. She raised four children and loved the children and grandchildren of her second and third husbands. She is an icon among her great grandchildren of longevity and strength. Professionally, Bernadine created a large and successful inner city pre-school before she began her degree in education and then enjoyed a long and successful career in elementary education. She is survived by her husband Louis Krueger; daughters Lois Collins of Phoenix, AZ, Luann (Tom) Spraker of New River, AZ, Elise (George Zimmermann) Livingston of Richmond, IL, Luther (Estella) Livingston Jr of Allegan, MI; eight grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren. She was preceded by her parents, husbands Luther Livingston and Charles Stubbs and a brother Eugene Trainer. Memorial services will be at 12:00 p.m. Sunday Nov. 12, 2017 at Community Church of Richmond, 5714 Broadway, Richmond, IL. Interment will be in Sheep of the Good Shepherd Cemetery in Allegan, MI. She will be remembered with love and gratitude.
