“ My deepest condolences I have many fond memories of Dawn. I enjoyed her company at many of her daughters softball games. She was a light that always shined.

I have know Dawn since we were 13 years old. Over the years she has always been there for me. A true and loving friend. I lost a piece of my heart when she passed. I know Jesus will put that piece back when it's my turn to go to heaven. It was an honor to be part of her life for so long. Grateful. 🙏🏻🙏🏻
