“ At my Dads funeral I said to Don that he was the last of the mohicans. He was very upset that day. I never realised until then what they actually meant to each other. He, my father the Smith brothers and all the others that always met after work and sundays at the Genoa City legion. They are all together again! ❤️ Sympathies to the Smith families.

“ When i first met Don i was a little intimidated by him. After i got to know him, i relialized what a great person he was. We would tell jokes and he would laugh and say...I don't know about you Deb!! I will miss him very much our talks and laughs.
