“ I've had the pleasure of a friendship with Don for the past 5 years. He was such a kind person and stepped up to help me to take care of a difficult estate and also helped me to take care of my mom's house. He spent the time teaching me how to paint, take care of a house, and fix things. I looked up to him as someone that seemed to know a little bit of everything. When I was having a difficult time and felt all alone, I prayed for someone to come help me, and Don showed up. He was an angel in human form. I am so very saddened that he is no longer with us. He was a very kind and loyal friend. My condolences to his family and all who loved him.
