“ My grandma lit up every single room she entered with her huge, goofy personality. She had an amazing ability to make anyone feel special. She was silly and generous, friendly and spontaneous, the warmest hugger, and an absolute force when angered. I'll think of her with every loud water slider, every pocket Kleenex, every piece of bubblegum in church, every chubby yellow lab, and every iced Diet Coke I encounter for the rest of my life.

I adored her, and will miss her always.

“ My dear Aunt Doris was a very loving person. She was also my Godmother!!! I always looked forward to our family visits. She was full of hugs and kisses and was always interested in what I had been doing and what was coming up next. I even remember how much she liked Elvis!!! She was full of laughter and fun. My heart is broken, but my memories are wonderful. I will miss you my dear Aunt Doris. All of my love to Uncle Steve and all my cousins!! Becky and Ed Cheek, Heather, Ethan and Liam
