“ Here we are again at the end of 2022. Happy Belated birthday and Merry Christmas my little one. I think of you so often and know that you would have been greatly looked up to by your sister Aurora and brother Asher. One thing is certain, we will be together again when God calls us home. Love you always and you are blessed. Grandma Bernice

Has anyone ever tried talking to her real father? I'm married to him and he goes through hell every year during this time. I'd really love to have a conversation with his ex wife.

“ *Here we are at the end of 2021 and it seems like yesterday when I last saw you. You are in my heart and thoughts always and I can imagine what a beautiful young woman you would be at this time. I know that you are free of pain and dancing and laughing and knowing we will all be together again in Gods Kingdom is all the comfort we need. God bless you my little one and I love you always. “ One of my fondest memories of Edann was when she lived with me and I bought her a bouquet of balloons. We put her on the couch and I tied the balloons to her wrist and helped her move her hand up and down to make them bounce. She started to do it by herself and the smile on her face was so precious it melted my heart. Edann melted my heart the first time I saw her. I was so blessed to have her in my life for the short time I did and will always carry her in my heart and remember the smile that captured my heart to begin with. I miss you and love you Edann
