

Edward M LeBaron

April 30, 1935 - April 2, 2026

Edward M. LeBaron, 90, of Hebron, IL, passed away Thursday, April 2, 2026 peacefully, at his residence.

He was born in Glen Ellyn, IL on April 30, 1935, a son of the late Margaret (Dixon) and Edward LeBaron.

He was married to Cody Hollenbeck on Dec. 30, 1955, in Hebron, IL and she died Dec. 8, 2012.

A graduate of Glen Ellyn High School, he served in the U.S. Marines as a master sergeant for 20 years, retiring in 1968.

He worked as plant manager at Crown Industries Hebron, IL., for for 28 years.

Trustee for the Village of Hebron and served on the Planning & Zoning for 12 years. He was on the Hebron Public Library board for five years and was a volunteer for the Hebron Food Pantry for 11 years. His favorite saying was "I'd rather be tinkering in my garage".

Edward is survived by a daughter, Kitty LeBaron; three sons Shawn (Jolyn) LeBaron, Scott (Gail) LeBaron, Michael (Theresa) LeBaron; four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. He was predeceased by a brother

Jim LeBaron.

The family requests donations to Hebron Food Pantry 10206 Seaman Road
Hebron, IL 60034.

A memorial visitation will be from Noon until 3:00 p.m. Saturday April 18 at the LeBaron home with military honors at 1:00 p.m.