“ George Edmonds was my uncle. He was, without question, the most thoughtful person I've ever known. We live far away from him and Helen but he never missed a birthday, holiday or other special occasion. He always wrote sweet thoughts and memories on his cards and they always arrived on exactly the right day. Getting a wonderful message from Uncle George would make the day very special for me. I knew him as a hard-working man...and a true patriot. He was a good role model for everyone. My wife and I are sad that he is gone. We lift up prayers for peaceful hearts and sweet memories to carry Helen and all of his family forward in this life. Blessings to all, Cy and Debby Meyer
