“ He was a great brother-in-law. Always spoke his mind. I helped him roof that steep garage in Waukegan and we had to nail a piece of 2x4 to keep us from sliding off. He put you kids a play area upstairs in it. He loved Nancy and all you kids. I bought Julie a ceiling fan for her bedroom at the farm house and he didn't want to install it, but he finally did. He loved for me to can him pickled beets and chow chow. When we went to Florida he would ask me to take Nancy to different places and see the sites. Those were many good memories. He loved for me to cook for them and didn't like his bacon crisp. Too many memories to share. I will miss him. Love you all.

“ I moved to Richmond and no idea what I was getting myself into. You and Nancy helped me every step of the way! I remember one day I was sleeping after bartending and woke to hear pounding. I went out to see what it was and there you were in the garage. I said hey whatcha doing. The reply was. Well I noticed you had insulation in your garage so I'm insulating the interior wall and putting up a peg board for tools! That's just one of 100 things you did to help me and you did the same for all of us!! You will be missed! I'll mostly miss the wonderful laughs we had! Will miss you forever!! RIP til we meet again!!❤️❤️

Steve, Robin and Julie I am so sorry for the loss of your father. Most especially that the Covid Virus has made the arrangements so scaled back .I am pleased he will be accorded the honors that he earned.in serving his country. I will not forget how good he was taking care of Aunt Nancey through those last hard years. God bless you all and may Jerry and Nancy rest in peace .forever.
