“ I haven't been very close to either side of my family for a long time, but I remember Aunt Gisela fondly. My sisters and I were around her a lot when we were very young. She gave us our first bike (we shared it). I loved it. I loved her. (There's a lot more to it. It wasn't just a bike.) I also lived with her when I was in 9th grade for a while. It was a tough situation and she tried in a number of ways to make it better. My sincere condolences to everyone who loved her. Kay Gribkoff (Kay Heilgeist).
