“ *Deepest sympathy to you all. I do remember Jim coming into the pharmacy in Genoa City. Always a pleasure to talk to him. A great personality and a positive man. Didn't seem like much could stop him with whatever he took on. Some people you just never forget and he and Marge were two of them. Sorry I will not be able to attend. Moved from Genoa City 10 years ago, but you will be in my prayers and thoughts.

“ *My Uncle Jim certainly can be thought of as a person who never gave up...even though physical afflictions affected him all his life....he always kept working no matter what...from sales and marketing positions to night watchman. There has to be a special place in Heaven for guys like this.
I remember he was so proud when he announced even when he was well into retirement years age of his Associates College Degree. An amazing guy.
You have traveled far Uncle Jim....and I have no doubt when you were welcomed into Heaven the words were spoken "Well done my good and faithful servant".

I'll be there for Aunt Marge and to honor you this Thursday.*
