

James W. Rowan

September 29, 1949 - January 13, 2013

James W. Rowan, age 63, of Richmond, IL, passed away Sunday, January 13, 2013 at Good Shepherd Hospital in Barrington, IL

James was born in Chicago, IL on September 29, 1949, a son of the late William and Wilma (Jones) Rowan.

He was a graduate of Carl Schurz High School in 1967.

He was married to Cindy Wright on September 8, 2007 in Galesburg, IL.

He worked as a tool and die maker for the electrical industry.

He served in the U.S. Army during the Vietnam War.

James is also survived by his wife Cindy, a daughter, Lisa (Doug) Teague, of Phoenix, AZ; two sons Joseph Rowan, of Thornton, CO; James Rowan, of Somanouk, IL; two step daughters Michelle (William) May and April Wright, both of Galesburg; several grandchildren and a great granddaughter; three sisters, Sharon Rowan, Debbie Rios, Becky Crueger and a brother Darryl Rowan. He was preceded by a brother Steve Rowan.

Memorial service will be at 11:00 am Saturday January 19, 2013 at Ehorn-Adams Funeral Home, 10011 Main St. Richmond, IL. Chaplain Ralph Searles will officiate.

Memorials to the family would be appreciated.

I hope this obit comes off the site soon. This is so sad to hear such comments & anger.

Bottom line is Jim is gone & no more suffering for him. Cindy & her family & friends loved him & so did Jim's family. Leave it at that. Doesn't matter about all the plans that went on after he died. I truly believed Jim told his family, especially Becky, what he wanted for his burial to please her & told Cindy his wishes to be cremated as it was financially the only way to go as I personally heard him say he felt badly that he had nothing to leave for Cindy such as life insurance to help with the burden.

Yes, Becky, there are 2 sides to Jim's stories as I've heard him talk about his upbringing & spoke of his mom & siblings in not such a nice manner. Jim was angry at life & had so much hatred in him. It was obvious he needed help but he did it his way & died his way. No one & I mean NO ONE could help Jim. He was self destructive & was literally a dead man walking.

I just hope the anger in everyone will subside & just let Jim rest in peace.

I hope Jim's family will have some closure on all this & understand the only thing that mattered is Jim was loved & will always be remembered. Everyone has their way of grieving but it doesn't have to be with anger. God Bless Jim.

Lyn, your right have not seen the perfect family yet. also I know yours was not also. you been talked about and your family also and not from Jim so we know about you so what. None of you have ever said anything on here that shows that you know Jim. We have closure. It looks like you are having the hard time with closure. Jim will be okay he had his last rights in his own faith before he passed. Everything is good do not worry about it no more.Lyn It is over Find peace in your self do not worry about others

Well you should! You all spout off at the mouth how much you loved Jim and as usual NONE of you could be bothered to be there for Jim today! You all talk crap when you should look in the mirror! All our family including my Moms side we there and not one of you were! Disrespectful! People in glass houses shouldn't throw stones! Have a nice life!!!

StepDaughter - January 19, 2013 at 07:32 PM

If you had such a perfect service why are you having such bad feeling you should be happy. JimS not going to get any of his family he loved us and we loved him. What will happen is that when you lay down to sleep your nightmares will come to you for all the lies you have told. White trash let me think.no did not hurt me sorry
