“ To the Family of Jasmine, the time we spent together at Creekside Middle School will always hold fond memories. Her sense of humor was awesome. She lit up when a peer in the hallway gave her a hug. We worked at going up inclines on the stage ramp. Going downhill, was another story. LOL. During a quiet time in the day, she smiled when a blanket was tucked in around her. She was curious about somethings that she encountered. As best as I could determine, her favorite color was purple. Like me, we both disliked warm weather. It is hard not to have favorites, but Jasmine was one them. Mr. Bradley
