“ So very sorry to hear about Jeff's passing. Dawn told me the other day. I heard you all got together to celebrate his life. Aunt Toots sends her condolences also. She is with me in California. The last time I spoke with Jeff was at my dad's funeral and Jamie's funeral about 5 years ago. It was good to see all of you. I haven't seen Connie or Stephen in ages! Again, our thoughts and prayers are with all of you. We hope you find memories of Jeff that will be comforting. Love,
Your cousin, Cindi Smith Davern

“ As kids, Jeff was the best shortstop i ever had the privilege to play baseball with. He was very quick, and had a fast glove. And could whip the ball to first base with ease and accuracy. While at bat, he would crouch down a bit, and force the pitcher to try to get a strike past him with a smaller strike zone. Not only achieving more walks, but increase his batting average because of "good pitches" he got tossed his way. Once on base, he was notorious for stealing bases. He was very quick, and could anticipate opportunities to sprint for possibly third, and maybe home plate. Corny was always quick with a joke, and had a great laugh. He and i lost contact after we all graduated, as sometimes happens with friends, but always had a good laugh when we did see each other. Great memories of our youth. Rest in Peace, CORNY. Sincerely, JIM V.
