“ My sympathy to Jim's family. I so enjoyed working in transport with him at the hospital. Once he found out I was a Hebron gal, there were many discussions about who we knew, plus farming was always a favorite topic, since my uncle was a farmer in the area. It was always nice to visit with Jim at the bank when he came in to do business.

He always talked about what the kids and grandkids were doing.

We had wonderful visits that I wii always cherish.

He was a great guy and I am lucky for knowing him.

“ So sorry to hear about your Dad's passing. Maybe he and George are discussing potatoes with your Mom. They had a rivalry going there. Or giant pumpkins. I know he enjoyed his trip to Tennessee for the weigh-off. He has always been very proud of his children and loved being a part of your lives. He was a wonderful friend once you broke through the quiet facade. Donna Kopsell
