She was born in Kenosha, Wisconsin on January 23, 1934, and was best known for her love of family, friends, NFL (go Green Bay), playing dice, darts and working the slot machines. Most of those seven children gave them 19 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren; those who didn't, babysat.

“ I did not get to know Pudge very well however enjoyed any time I spent around her, I was lucky enough to get her to share her pickled beet order and followed it to a tee! Wonderful lady gone to soon. May she rest in peace. Friend to all she met

“ My husband and I knew Pudge from the Hideaway. She was funny, kind, interesting and we adored her. We especially enjoyed talking gardening and cooking. In fact, we brought her zucchini from IL on several occasions so she could make her zucchini bread...and she always shared. The things I admired about her the most was how much she loved her family, how strong she was after losing her husband and her quick wit. We've shared many laughs with Pudge and I know she will be missed by many. Our condolences to family and friends. RIP dear lady.
