

Mary Voss

December 30, 1943 - March 7, 2022

Mary V. Voss, 78, of McHenry, IL, passed away Monday, March 7, 2022 at her home, peacefully in her sleep.

She was born in Park Ridge, IL on December 30, 1943, a daughter of the late Herb and Virginia (Wiese) Nosbaum.

She was a graduate of Maine East High School, Park Ridge, IL.

She married Robert J. Voss on August 27, 1973, in Oak Park, IL

She worked as a proofreader at Black Dot in Crystal Lake, IL for many years, later working at two other printing companies closer to Chicago. She loved the detailed attention the job required, and was a natural at it, noticing errors in everything she read. For a while she was self employed cleaning homes in the local area.

Mary was an avid reader and devoured books in rapid succession. She was a rabid Cubs fan, growing to love the Bulls and Blackhawks as well. To the dismay of some family members, she was a huge Green Bay Packers fan.

Mary enjoyed sewing clothing, dolls and stuffed animals, gifting many with her creations. She was talented at cooking and canning, and enjoyed primitive camping in the fall.

Mary is survived by her husband, Robert; three daughters; Robin Voss, Amy (Chris) Anderson, Sara (Kurt) Eigenfeld, a son Paul (Shelly) Voss; eight grandchildren and several great grandchildren; two sisters; Carolyn Sotos and Christine (Jerry) Sokol. She was preceded in death by a son, Jeffrey Voss.

“ My mother was my best friend. She has a beautiful soul inside and out. She was my guiding light and someone I looked up to always. You will be sorely missed Mom until the day I come to see you again, and then, we will raise hell together. You were taken way too soon💔 I love you so much
