“ Our deepest sympathies! Pat was a great friend to Keith's mom, a fellow special ed bus driver, and always fun to be around. You couldn't help but laugh when she was around. She and my mother-in-law, Elaine are surely causing a ruckus up in Heaven! The Pachol Family

“ Dear Smith family, Pat was a loyal and fantastic waitress at my wife's Restaurant, Steve's Lounge for many, many years. She was always cheerful, compassionate, caring. We are so saddened by her passing. Thinking of her in Arizona.

“ I met Pat in 1984 when she and I both started driving special ed school buses.
We had many, many good times together throughout the years. She was always such a good friend and probably the most kind hearted person I have ever known.
She will be greatly missed by many. Especially at Tuesday morning breakfast at Bobby,s
In Antioch. It will never be the same without her.
I'm sure she will be teaching line dancing in heaven.
