“ If real "Beauty is skin deep" Phyllis O'Halleran was the most beautiful woman our family has ever known. Phyllis lived life with such joy, selflessness, faith, and love. For a time when my Mother was a single parent living on a shoestring budget raising 4 children, Phyllis was a true friend who treated her with grace and dignity. Phyllis was our second Mom. She opened her home, her heart, and in even greater amounts lived as an example of generosity and kindness. Phyllis helped us kids by allowing those harder times to be the funnest days of our young lives. Giving of her love as natural as she gave her own children. As my Mother reminded me, the memories we will hold dearest are all those days, that turned into months, that turned into years of our times together as family. "Death and Love are the Two Wings that Bear the Good Woman to Heaven" Upon her passing we are certain those Wings materialized to fly her to those who had made the journey before her, joyfully embracing, and reuniting once again. Phyllis was an ordinary woman who did extrodinary things, with an unconditional love that will live on in our hearts. Our deepest and heartfelt sympathies to all of her family.
