“ I have such fond memories of Ronnie when we were in high school- he was a year ahead of me and at a different school, but we kind of lived in the same neighborhoods. He would carry my accordion home from the music school for me on band night. What a great person. On Sundays, we usually asked him to dinner since his mom was sad and didn't cook much. He went to the army in 1964 and I was to be married later that year (which never happened) but I never heard from him again. He was truly a beautiful person.

“ Ron you were a wonderful person and will be fondly remembered in my childhood stories when I take my own children to the museums and parks that our families enjoyed together. You will be missed.
