“ I loved sharing his birthday. We had 43 birthdays together. Loved visiting the Lumber Yard to visit him. Loved seeing him at family gatherings. Last time I saw him was when we said good bye to my dad. Say hi to everyone for me. Will miss you Uncle Bob.

“ My Uncle Bob Schroeder instilled in me a lifelong love of hockey. He was also the family historian on my genealogy search. I will miss our talks terribly. I know he's in good hand in Heaven with his loving wife Barbara, his parents Pearl and Clarence, his son David and siblings George, Howard, Lois and Shirley. He leaves behind a strong family legacy of love as seen in his children and their children. God speed Uncle Bob.
