“ Fondest memory of Whitney ? Too many . We went to Alden hebron high school in the 80' he was two years ahead of me but we shared alot if the same classes and especially choir. The fun we had teasing back and forth.

Watching him play football . Sharing a love of bicycling . He once saved me from an over aggressive e blind date at the prom in lake Geneva wisconsin. Homecoming bonfires a dance at homecoming a few times. He had a wonderful sense of humor. I secretly had a crush on him for our high school years. Being and underclassman I never let out how I felt.

Whitney had just found me on classmates.com in august before he passed we were talking of meeting since I too live in Wisconsin. I had told him of my crush and how I was so very happy to find him .

Whitney I will miss you forever. You were truly my knight in shining armor in more ways then one . God bless him .

“ I'll always remember Whitney coming to visit with his family for the reunion; Cindy and I looked forward to it all year. Whitney also came to see me when I was stationed at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana. Needless to say, many years have since passed, but I remember him being a really nice guy with a heart of gold; he had a special kindness that exuded his wonderful character, no doubt a reflection of how he was raised!

Nothing can help ease the sorrow of losing a loved one; albeit the word of the Lord transcends our understanding, emotions, and grief to reveal his plans. We can rest in the knowledge that he is in control and must steadfastly trust him; through God all things are possible..

Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. v/r Lyn Henrich
